

APPLICATION PROCEDURE FOR THE 2009-YÖS EXAMINATION

Application Period : February 2 - 20, 2009

Enter the OSYM website www.osym.gov.tr for the 2009 YÖS Examination Guide and the Application Form.

Choose either Turkish or English in the Language Selection to complete the application procedure.

If you don't already have an OSYM-issued Foreign Resident (FR) Number, you should obtain one from the link 'Application for all OSYM examinations'. This number and password will be valid not only for this exam but also for any future transactions with OSYM. For this reason, you should keep it where it can be easily accessed.

The fee for the YÖS Examinations should be deposited into the OSYM bank account which is indicated on the back cover of the 2009 YÖS Guide.

Fill out the Application Form.

After printing out and filling out the application form, go to one of the Application Centres (the list is available at www.osym.gov.tr) with the form, your passport or residence permit, and the bank payment slip.

At the centres, you will hand the application form, carefully filled out to a staff member, who will type the information into a computer. Make sure your information is being entered correctly. You will also have your photograph taken at the centre, for which your appearance must comply with Turkish regulations. When the staff member prints out the information (2009 YÖS Application and Registration Document) he or she has entered, check the document carefully and sign it. The staff member will also sign it and give it back to you to retain.

Pay a fee of 3 Turkish liras to cover the costs of processing your application.

You have now completed your part of the application procedure.

You will need to have an FR number and password, the bank payment slip, and a most recent digitalized photograph of yourself before you start the application procedure at <http://ais.osym.gov.tr>

Enter your FR number and password.

Select the 2009 YÖS Examination from Examination List.

Select Personal Application from choices given.

Enter the information written on your bank payment slip.

Enter the information that you wrote on your Application Form and attach your digital photograph to the electronic form.

Click CONTINUE to continue the application process. At this point, if any information is missing, you will be informed and given the opportunity to supply it. Then again click CONTINUE. You will see two choices: 'APPLICATION COMPLETED' or 'GO BACK' (if necessary).

The following will appear on the screen 'Your Application will now be processed. To check your information and print it out a copy, click on the 'My Information' link on the left'.

You have now completed your part of the application procedure.

To access and print out information about your application, you can always go to the 'My Information' link in the months ahead.
